

>Date: Thu, 23 Oct 2003 14:19:45 -0700 (PDT)
>From: Eve Riskin <riskin@ee.washington.edu>
>To: Faculty in ADVANCE Depts in A&S and COE
>From: Eve Riskin, ADVANCE Center for Institutional Change Director
>
>Re: Next Round of ADVANCE Visiting Scholars Applications Due November 15th
>

> I am writing to alert you about the next round of the ADVANCE
> Visiting Scholars Program.

> This opportunity is associated with UW's NSF ADVANCE award.

> The next round of applications is due November 15th.
> Submittal instructions and the application can be downloaded > from > the website:

> http://www.engr.washington.edu/advance/visiting_scholars.html

> PLEASE NOTE THAT WE HAVE RECENTLY REVISED THIS PROGRAM! Visitors > which we will support can be:

> A) Scholars to work with the CIC to help us achieve
> ADVANCE'S programmatic goals for visits up to one quarter.

> B) Scholars in an ADVANCE department for a short-term visit > (e.g. a week or less) to present a talk or series of > talks. ADVANCE especially welcomes scholars from > underrepresented groups.

>**
>**

>Eve A. Riskin
>Professor of Electrical Engineering and
>Director of ADVANCE Center for Institutional Change
>
>Tel: (206) 685-2313 Fax: (206) 543-3842

>Box 352500
>Univ. of Washington
>Seattle, WA 98195-2500 email: riskin@ee.washington.edu
><http://www.ee.washington.edu/research/dcl/>
><http://www.engr.washington.edu/advance/>

>**
>**

- - - - -
Linda G. Bushnell, Research Assistant Professor
IEEE Control Systems Society Secretary-Administrator
Dept. of Electrical Engineering, Box 352500
University of Washington, Seattle, WA 98195-2500
Tel (206) 221-6717 Fax (206) 543-3842
bushnell@ee.washington.edu